

VISIT RIVER COUNTRY AFTER SIX

Summer officially began in the Magic Kingdom Saturday, June 10, and with the coming of summer many guests and cast members alike will be heading to the cool waters and wild rides and slides at River Country.

Plunging into the Ol' Swimming Hole, splashing, riding and gliding down flume-style slides or riding a raft down twisting rapids and under sparkling waterfalls are just some of the adventures visitors can experience at River Country. For the less daring guest, there's a 160 foot-long swimming pool, complete with diving platforms and slides to keep you busy!

River Country is open daily from 9 am to 10 pm, and will be twice as exciting After Six when attendance is not as heavy and the evening sun is not as hot, especially with our new special-value tickets! In addition, evening visitors to River Country can experience our Electrical Water Pageant at 9:45 pm, followed by our spectacular Fantasy In The Sky fireworks at 10 pm.

Regular admission to River Country is $4.75 for adults, $3.75 for children. Our special twilight prices make the evening a better bargain with adult admission only $3.75 and children's admission $2.75. Our new family tickets, which lets the whole family enjoy River Country for one low price After Six is only $13.00!

LOOK OUT! BOGUS DISNEYANA

Editor's Note: The following article was printed in the May 26, 1978 issue of The WED-WAY, the employee publication at WED Enterprises.

Caveat emptor . . . buyer beware.

During Mickey's 50th Birthday year, a large volume of bogus Disneyana is being sold to the public at flea markets and swap meets.

Bogus Disneyana consists of recently made items that are passed off as Disney merchandise from the collectable 1930's. Some products were manufactured by Walt Disney Productions licensees and simply feature the old-style Mickey Mouse. But others are being reproduced without the permission of Walt Disney Productions and are copyright infringements.

Dave Smith, archivist for Walt Disney Productions, has compiled a list of some of the more common bogus items, which is partially reproduced below.

In addition to these products, Dave said he has heard rumors of imitation "Snow White" cels being sold in Hollywood.

A collector should be leery of any early Disney cel, Dave warned, unless it carries an authentication sticker on the reverse from the Courvoisier Galleries of San Francisco. If it was produced after 1955, it will have a similar sticker from Disneyland.

Here are some of the items included in Dave's list:

- A round belt buckle featuring Mickey holding a pencil, with the inscription "Mickey Mouse 1937 Hollywood Cal. U.S.A." The buckle is stamped on the back, "Sun Rubber Co., USA" and sometimes "Tiffany and Co., London, England." It began appearing around 1971. Sun Rubber did not become a Disney licensee until 1941 and never made metal buckles. The two buckles are infringements upon Disney copyright.

- Ingersoll clock showing Mickey and Minnie Mouse kissing. Designed by Alberto Horen, the clock was never authorized or mass produced.

- A rectangular belt buckle showing Minnie Mouse peering through a telescope. This product was produced in England in 1973.

- Cast iron Mickey Mouse bookends. While featuring an old-style Mickey leaning against a book, these items were actually manufactured in 1972 by John Wright, Inc. of Wrightsville, Pennsylvania. The company is licensed by Walt Disney Productions, but some dealers have been passing off the bookends as products of the 1930's.

- Mickey Mouse Ingersoll pocket watch. The bogus version has a longer copyright notice than the original, including a date, and the back is not embossed with the Mickey figure.

- Pinback button featuring Mickey and Minnie Mouse at the piano and labeled "Yoo Hoo!" It has a 1930 copyright notice on the rim, but it's of recent manufacture and from England.

For more information about what is hot and what is not, contact the Disney Archives at the Studio, extension 2424.

SAVE THOSE QUARTERS!

The people who collect Vista-Florida Telephone's paystations have noticed a recent increase in the number of quarters deposited in our pay-telephones.

Vista-Florida has noticed the increase in quarters since Southern Bell in Orlando started charging 25¢ for local calls.

Despite the fact that all our pay-telephones clearly state that only 10¢ is required for a local call, people have been throwing in quarters left and right, assuming whatever Southern Bell charges must be what Vista-Florida Telephone charges.

Actually, Vista-Florida has not changed its pay-telephone rates and does not foresee doing so in the near future. Southern Bell in Orlando had to file a rate case with the Public Service Commission for their increase to 25¢, and had to prove they deserved it too! The charge for a local call is directly related to the telephone company's cost of maintaining and repairing paystations. Vista-Florida's costs have been stable in this area, so they see no need to increase our present 10¢ rate for local calls.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

REMEMBER TO VALIDATE YOUR ID!

All permanent and Casual Regular Walt Disney World employees receive an ID and parking sticker, which must be renewed annually in the same month you renew your Florida state inspection. After receiving your Florida state inspection, bring your inspection slip to our ID office located in the Center Building. At this time, you will receive a renewal center strip to correspond with the month and year of your Florida state inspection sticker.

In addition, each employee will need to have a validation date stamped on their ID. The date stamped on your ID is the month and year the ID was validated; your ID will not expire until a year after this date. It is important to validate your ID to avoid complications in receiving your employee discount or entering the property.

SPECIAL HOURS ANNOUNCED FOR MAIN STREET BARGAIN BASEMENT

Due to many requests by cast members, the Merchandise Division will open the Main Street Bargain Basement five days a week from June 19 to June 30. During this time the Main Street Bargain Basement will be open Monday through Friday from 11 am to 5 pm.

In addition to the normal discounts of 50% off on slightly damaged and out-of-style merchandise, many items will be specially marked with an additional 25% off!

The Main Street Bargain Basement is located next to the Main Street tunnel breakroom and accepts cash, Disney and Master Charge credit cards.

CENTER BUILDING OPEN THURSDAY MORNINGS

In an effort to better accommodate our third shift employees, the offices in the Center Building are open every Thursday morning at 7:30 am. If you have business to conduct with our Vista Federal Credit Union, Personnel Services, or just want to stop by Cast Activities for discount tickets or information, plan to do it on Thursdays!

LETTERS TO US

Editor's note: The following letter was sent to Card Walker, President of Walt Disney Productions.

Dear Mr. Walker:

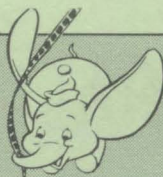

Our family is busily planning its fifth trip to Walt Disney World. Why 5 times? Because in a family vote of father, mother, son and daughter the decision was unanimous as to where everyone wanted to go for a vacation. We have stayed at the Polynesian Village twice, once in a treehouse, and last year and this in a villa . . . We have eaten at nearly every restaurant available and shopped at the lovely Walt Disney World Village at Lake Buena Vista. In fact, we plan our number of nights stay by the number of restaurants we want to patronize . . . the boat rentals are great, the grounds and exceptional landscaping have been enjoyed by each one of us. The employees just have to be the nicest anywhere . . .

My intent is really to say "Thank You" for providing my family and millions of others a lifetime of happy memories. My congratulations to your personnel and training people in selecting and training the thousands of WDW employees to become the most highly respected people anywhere. And a very special thanks for the security provided the guests at Walt Disney World. You may think it's strange that security ranks high in importance, but our children are from a small town and don't know the kind of protective measures people of the cities must live with. At Walt Disney World, we have had the assurance of safety for our children such as can be had nowhere else.

For all this, and for our many wonderful times, again I thank you and your many employees. Please continue in this tradition so that someday my grandchildren will too be able to enjoy all we have been so fortunate to have.

Sincerely,

Mrs. John Witting
Hancock, Michigan

Participating in last week's ground-breaking for the new Services Building at Fort Wilderness were Steve Ulinski, Kim Smith, "Stoney" Stone, Gibbs Stepp, Mike Cokrell, Sandy Starling, Walt Perkins, Carl Matlock, Jose Barbosa and Gayle Roy. The Services Building will house Ft. Wilderness offices, employee wardrobe and locker rooms and a break area. The Services Building is scheduled to open this December.

"It Takes People"

It has been said that international travel is an important part of the educational process. People who have been given the opportunity to meet other people and experience, first hand, the cultures and traditions of far-off lands have been able to acquire a level of understanding and awareness which cannot be attained through academics alone.

Two of our Walt Disney cast members were recently chosen to spend six weeks in Japan as participants in the 1978 Lions International Youth Exchange Program. Chris Jones and Deanna Posey are being sponsored by the Ocoee Lions Club. Two Japanese students will visit the homes of the Ocoee Lions Club members while Chris and Deanna are visiting Japan.

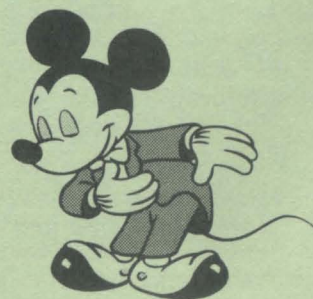

Deanna has been a Tour guide with our Guest Relations Department for over a year and is presently attending Valencia Junior College. After her visit to Japan she plans to return to her role with Walt Disney World and continue her education.

Chris has been a cast member for over two years and recently graduated from West Orange High School. His only immediate plans after the upcoming trip are to return to this role as a seating host at King Stefan's!

Both Chris and Deanna were selected to represent the Ocoee Lions Club and Lions International after giving a talk to the organization about why they would like to participate in the program and visit Japan. In July they will fly to San Francisco where they will meet other exchange students from around the United States and then the entire group will continue on to Japan!

Although neither has yet been told what cities they'll be living in, they do know they will each be spending three weeks in two different cities with two different families.

They both said the one thing they hope to be able to see while staying in Japan is our Tokyo Disneyland site!
